THE CADIZ SENTINEL.

EDITED BY L. HARPER.

"HE IS A FREEMAN WHOM THE TRUTH MAKES FREE."

CADIZ, OHIO:
WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCT. 2, 1844.

Democratic Executive Committee for Harrison County.

WILLIAM MILLIGAN,
JOHN MILLIKIN,
JOHN McNEILL,
JOSEPH R. HUNTER,
JOSEPH McGOAGLE.

To Advertisers.

The Sentinel has altogether the largest circulation of any paper in this Congressional District, and is therefore the best medium through which advertisers may spread their notions before the public. Our terms are moderate. Give us a call.

ONE VOTE.

We wish we could impress upon our Democratic friends the importance of a single vote. Gov. MORRIS, of Massachusetts, was elected by a single vote; our prosecuting Attorney, Mr. Jewett, had but one vote of a majority, over his competitor last year. In a county so equally balanced as Harrison, it is sometimes almost impossible to tell which party will succeed. Hence the necessity of every voter turning out to the polls.

WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP.

We have received the proceedings of a meeting of our Democratic friends of Washington township, which was held at Tippecanoe, on the 28th inst., but are sorry that our paper is so much crowded as to exclude them this week. The Democracy of Washington are on fire, and have resolved to turn out to the polls to a man. Let the Democracy of every other township follow the same example, and all will be right.

SHALL OHIO

Be ranked among the federal states any longer? That is the question for every Democrat to take into consideration. Let us on next Tuesday teach the braggadocio spirit of vaunting federalism that the people of Ohio are not prepared to submit to the galling yoke of oppression, which federal taskmasters would impose upon them. We honestly believe that the Democracy will carry Ohio by a majority of 15,000,

if they turn out to the polls in their might and strength.

BRING IN THE RETURNS.

Let one or two Democrats in each township be appointed to bring in the returns as soon as counted, in order that we may at an early hour of the night send up a deafening and joyous shout of victory. The "Baby-waker" will be in readiness to give the coons a little thunder!

LOOK OUT FOR FEDERAL LIES!—On the eve of every election, the federal party spread their poisonous lies—"Thick as autumn leaves that strew the brooks, in Valambrosa!" when it is impossible for the Democracy to refute them. Let our friends be on their guard, and disabuse every assertion the federal stumpers and perambulating vagabonds may make. Lying is their vocation.

DEMOCRATS of Harrison County!

"ONE MORE FIRE and the day is ours!"

This is the last shot in our locker—this is the last paper we shall issue before the State election. On next Tuesday, the 8th instant, between Democracy and Federalism, between Truth and Falsehood, will take place. Is every Democrat awake to the importance of the conflict? Is every Democrat prepared to enter into the struggle with a right good will? This will unquestionably be the most important election to the people of Ohio, that has ever taken place.

THE GREAT BATTLE

THE FEDERAL PARTY,

emboldened with their success in 1840, and mortified with their disappointments and defeats since, are now making a desperate effort to obtain power, for the purpose of fastening upon the people of the United States all their infamous anti-Democratic measures.

Shall They Succeed?

No! No!!—every Freeman from his heart claims NO!!! in a voice of ten thunders! There is no doubt that the Federal party will bring out every whig voter to the polls, and it is certain that they will use every effort, whether honorable or dishonorable, to put down the Democracy. In 1840,

PIPE-LAYING

and fraudulent voting were resorted to by the Federal party, and unless they are watched with Argus eyes,

They will pipelay again!

It therefore behooves the Democracy to be on the alert, and suffer no man to vote unless he is legally qualified. In each Township and Election District COMMITTEES SHOULD BE APPOINTED.

whose duty it will be, early in the morning, on the day of election, to repair to their respective places of voting, and

REMAIN AT THE POLLS ALL DAY, and watch the Glentworths and Bela Badgers of the Federal party. All the Democracy ask is day light and fair play, and they are certain of success. Judging from the past, we have every reason to believe that will be hired to intimidate the Democracy, and endeavor to keep them away from the polls by threats of violence. While we would advise our friends to preserve order and maintain the laws of the land, we think they should not suffer themselves to be insulted or mistreated by the crazed devotees of Federalism. Let ORDER, ORDER! be the word.

Federal Bullies

Let no Democrat

remain at home on the day of Election. That day should be exclusively devoted to the CAUSE OF FREEDOM. But if the Committees of Vigilance discover that every Democrat is not on the ground, let them

Start after the absent Democrats and bring them to the place of voting; and let no excuse, however plausible, prevent them from doing their duty to their country. If they are at work which requires their attention, WORK FOR THEM, until they can go and vote.

ATTEND TO THE SICK.

There are always men confined to beds of sickness, and old men crippled and palsied by honorable age, who cannot get to the polls. Let Committees be specially appointed, who will provide horses and carriages to convey them from their homes to the election ground, and carry them back again, after they have deposited their ballots. The Federal party never neglect the sick, and it is hoped the Democracy will not be less vigilant in this particular than their opponents.

AGED DEMOCRATS!

Ye whose locks are whitened by the frosts of time, one word with you! In times past you have fought the good fight, and beheld the triumph flag of Democracy waving in the breeze. You have served your country long and faithfully, and now in the evening of your days, will you not once more rally in support of your cherished principles? Let it never be said that in your old age you became lukewarm or indifferent, or by your influence assisted to place Federalists in power. Brighten up your old blades, and strike one more decisive blow for your country.

YOUNG MEN!

Who have never voted, one word with you! BEGIN ARIGHT! Vote the Democratic ticket now, and you will have an easy conscience during life. But start wrong, by voting the Federal ticket, and you will probably always remain wrong. The young men are the hope of our country—upon them will soon devolve the great responsibility of conducting the affairs of Government. All young men are naturally attached to the principles of our Constitution and the Declaration of Independence, and consequently are Democrats at heart. If the Federal party obtain power, our Constitution will be violated and trampled in the dust—its most salutary provisions will be expunged by the Vandal hand of whiggery, and it will be left, to all intents and purposes, merely A PIECE OF BLANK PAPER, and not THE SHEET ANCHOR OF LIBERTY bequeathed us by our fathers.

RALLY! RALLY! RALLY!

Old men and young men, buckle on your armor, and once more strike the invincible blow for Freedom. Like the Sultani band of Bozzarús:

"Strike till the last arm'd foe expires—
Strike for your altars and your fires—
Strike for the green graves of your sires—
God and your native land!"

OHIO IS OURS

beyond a doubt, but by a little effort we can swell our majority so large that the Federal party will not only be defeated, but scattered to the four winds of heaven, never to be united again! Huzza! Democrats, Huzza!! One more fire and the coon is dead!

Farmers Remember!

That Henry Clay has said that "AGRICULTURE NEEDS NO PROTECTION." Can you vote for such a man? We think not.

Such a gnashing of teeth!

Read to a coon Henry Clay's letter, in which the great Embodiment says HE WOULD BE GLAD to see Texas annexed to the United States!

"My Negroes are fat and sleek."

Such was the exclamation of Henry Clay, to Mr. Mendenhall. And the same idol of coonery again declared that "two hundred years have sanctioned and SANCTIFIED negro slaves as property."

HARD CIDER!

On their passage to Salt River next, the federal coons will have a great time of it gulping down hard cider! They will keep their spirits up by pouring spirits down! Ten barrels will be enough for the coons of Cadiz, with an extra half barrel of old rye for the Editor of the Standard!

"Pulling wool over the People's eyes."

The federal editors and orators still persist in declaring that Henry Clay is opposed to the annexation of Texas, notwithstanding he has written two letters decidedly in favor of the measure! Is it honest to keep those letters from the people? Out with them—out with them!

Two Dollars a Day and Boast Reef.

Who does not remember the promise of the coons in 1840, that if the laboring men supported Gen. Harrison, they would receive TWO DOLLARS A DAY AND ROAST BEEF?

The coons of Cadiz about those days ROASTED AN OX, and made a FREE DINNER. The head of that same ox has been found, and has been placed on the Hickory Pole, at Democratic Headquarters! It is a beautiful sight, and brings up many curious reminiscences of the past! A coon never passes it without getting sick at the stomach!

Ho! For Salt River!

All coons jump aboard! Haul in the ropes, and good bye to the natives! On next Wednesday Salt River will be a perfect jam! Coons enough will be there to make a pile as high as the Andes! What a Pandemonium it will be, when all the dirty, thieving animals get together!

ALL ABOLITIONISTS!

We understand that the whigs at their meeting at the Court House the other night, resolved that they were genuine Abolitionists! This is the last card of desperate men! Knowing their own weakness, they are determined to amalgamate with the Liberty men, to defeat the Democracy. We hope our friends will watch the movements of the rascals. Will consistent abolitionists go over neck and heels to HENRY CLAY, the great slaveholder of Kentucky? We cannot think that they will be guilty of an act so contrary to their professions and principles. But now errors.

COFFIN HAND BILLS!

Democrats, here is the kind of a picture MORDECAI BARTLEY circulated when he returned from Congress, to insult and wound the feelings of the Jackson party of that day:

Scores of certificates, from men whose veracity cannot be called into question, have been published, to prove the fact that Bartley circulated those hand bills. The last Mansfield Shield & Banner contains the following additional certificate. Read it, democrats, read it!

MIFLIN, Richard Co. O.
September 23, 1844.

I do hereby certify, that in the contest between Gen. Jackson and John Q. Adams for the Presidency, MORDECAI BARTLEY, the Whig candidate for Governor at this time, as he came home from Congress, when passing my farm stop the stage, called me to him and gave me two Coffin Handbills and told me to read them and circulate them among my neighbors.

JACOB KOOGLE.

The Ball of Democracy

Has recently rolled over Louisiana, Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois, North Carolina, Maine and Vermont, crushing every coon in its way! On next Tuesday it will bound through old Pennsylvania, leap the Ohio river, and roll over the Buckeye state in glorious triumph! Huzza, boys! give THAT BALL a kick!

Going!—going!—gone!

Will be sold at public auction on next Tuesday, at the Court house door, ten casks of whig enthusiasm, four barrels of hard cider, eight coon skins, a lot of Ogle's speeches, preserved since 1840, four ash poles, a pirate flag, a log cabin, together with the printing materials of the "White-Black-Bird," and that "tocher coon sheet down town," as they only do the party more harm than good. Sale to commence at 10 o'clock precisely. Shipplasters on Gen. Stekeley's Bank of Steubenville taken at par, but a credit will be given to such as wish to pay through another Bankrupt Law!

Look at your Tickets!

Read over every name, and see that it is all right. The federal party are in the habit of counterfeiting the democratic ticket, and omitting one name from one ticket, another name from another, and so on. We are satisfied that they will resort to every meanness this year to secure success. Our friends cannot be too cautious.

Those Ash Poles!—Omens!

"Alas, poor Cooney Clay!" Every ash pole in town has been visited with calamity! The one on Gimlet hill is broken off near the top. The one at the Cadiz hotel, and the other at the diagonal corner, are leaning at an angle of forty-five degrees, very much to the terror and danger of passers-by. The pole at the public square is beginning to lean over also. The poles look very much like the coon party at present, broken, falling down and sickly!

ANOTHER COON SLANDER.

The federal Editor of the Mansfield Bugle was the first to give publicity to the infamous slander that DAVID TOD was drunk, during his visit to Mansfield. Like other federal lies, this story was propagated on the eve of the election for effect. It is a most wicked and bare-faced falsehood, for every person acquainted with Col. Tod knows that he is a strictly moral and temperate man. We had ourself daily intercourse with him during the winter of '39 and '40, at Columbus, when he was a Senator from the county of Trumbull, and we take great pleasure in saying that we always found him to be a man who was TEMPERATE IN ALL THINGS—in eating, in drinking and in speaking. He was esteemed not only by the democrats but by the whigs also, and

Remember the Day.

On next Tuesday the Election takes place throughout the State of Ohio, for Governor, Congressmen, Senators, Representatives and County officers. Let every Democrat remember the day and be at the polls early and bring his neighbors with him.

Remember the Day.

We understand that Mr. GIDDINGS stated in a speech at New Lisbon, that the abolitionists in and about Cadiz, had turned for the gambler, duellist and slaveholder, HENRY CLAY. This was undoubtedly said for effect, Mr. G. thinking the declaration would induce the Liberty men in other sections to abandon their organization.

ANOTHER IMMENSE MEETING.

The Democrats of New York held a meeting on Friday evening last in the Park, which is represented as being larger than the largest ever held. The Post says:—"So immense had the assemblage of our city democracy in the Park become by 7 o'clock, and such was the anxiety of all to participate in the proceedings, that they divided off, and formed seven supplemental meetings, each composed of from 100 to 3000 persons, at which several eloquent and effective speeches were made, and from which such an incessant cheering proceeded as to keep up a continuous thunder of applause."

THE COON FANDANGO!

We did not return to Cadiz until the evening of the Federal Convention, and of course did not hear any of the speeches made on that occasion. But from the description given us by our friends, it must have been a SPLENDID HUMBUNG! As usual all the women, boys, girls and babies, together with the dogs, coons and cats, of the party, were here. Wheeling sent up her Bankrupts, and all the towns within forty miles sent their idlers and loafers. The principal speaker was the Hon. JOSHUA R. GIDDINGS, who came here on a mission to convert the Liberty men over to Henry Clay. We are told that he made long and loud appeals to the abolitionists, and told them they could not accomplish any thing unless they voted for the duellist and slaveholder of Ashland. This was a very important admission on the part of Mr. Giddings. It was just saying in as many words that the Democratic party are stronger than the whig party, and that unless the whigs receive accessions from the ranks of the Liberty men, they are gone coons! The Liberty men instead of breaking up their organization to please Mr. Giddings, are only redoubling their exertions in behalf of Mr. Birney. The whigs are boasting that Mr. Giddings succeeded in coaxing over thirty Liberty men to the whig ranks. Who are they? Let us have their names. The Liberty men, on the contrary, assert that Giddings' speech made converts to their side, which we are disposed to think is the fact.

The next day the federal coons of Cadiz had faces as long as a yard stick! The little stock of enthusiasm they mustered up the day before evaporated like steam, and from their present sickly appearance, you would not know they had a mass meeting at all! A deadly mildew seems to rest upon them—they are acting without union and without concert—the sensible men among them take no part in the shows and parades, and the only persons who appear to take a special interest in the election, are the rowdies who attempt to put down democrats by brute force. Poor creatures—they are determined to die hard!

DEMOCRATS CAN YOU VOTE

for a man for Governor, who has ever been an uncompromising and vindictive Federalist? Mordecai Bartley has vilified and abused the hero and statesman, GEN. JACKSON, in the most rancorous manner, and upon his return from Congress peddled the COFFIN HAND BILLS! Old Jackson men arouse! and vote for HONEST DAVID TOD, who will guard and protect your interests and preserve the faith and character of the State.

To our Adopted Citizens.

We earnestly request our adopted fellow-countrymen to bring their naturalization papers to the polls with them on next Tuesday. Their right to vote might possibly be questioned by some, and let them have the evidence in their hands to prevent all controversy.

Independent candidate for Congress 15th Dist.

JOSEPH A. RAMAGE, of Belmont.
